April Update Newsletter

O1 Roff

Third attempt at this letter.

Arleny is home enjoying a quick recovery from cancer surgery. Thank you for your many prayers. We had the best surgeon in the country, Doctor Annette Seiler. She is a great surgeon and a wonderful person!

A special thank you to Juanita Leonard (Sister Juanita Leonard). Juanita kept in touch often and prayed daily for us!

Juanita has built by hand her own church. She accepts request daily for prayers She will not accept any donations for her prayers.

Her daughter Cheekie is in her first year of college. She is going for a higher education and wants to be a psychologist.

Juanita just did me a favor, She sold her huge canvas painting to me. It is 5 Ft. x 8 ft. We came to an agreement after I told her I would never sell it! Now I am going to have it mounted. I will have a picture of it in the next newsletter.

Did you follow Slotin's Auction? I did not watch much of it but did see Bernice Sims paintings sell. They did well. I would have watched more but could never get my computer right.

Today, Saturday was the first day I was at the gallery any length of time. How good it felt to see old friends and customers, Among them were Ernie Boone, John Keagy, and Lori Phelps-Zink and David Zink.

I received a phone call from Shane Campbell today. He'd sent a photo to share with all of us.

This is his studio where he sings, plays the guitar, and carves those great carvings

Shane shared some great news with me. Good things will be happening Sept 1st!
Can't tell you, but hint---please watch your publications.

I enjoy this artist, Steven Chandler a whole lot! He shared this photo with us:
This is in his studio.

Both of the paintings he is holding are on ebay. I encourage you to check them out. Look under Georgia Red Mud. The large one is $500. the smaller one is $320.

I like to buy Steven's paintings then frame them. I kind of wish I would have bought the larger one—Bride on a Jug. I own the smaller Bride on a Jug that is behind him in the photo.

And on to that great Maryland artist Marion Crow. She seldom paints now but I just received two paintings. This is one of them: It is 22” x 28” and is priced at $375. It is “Amish Farm Country”

What a great lady!

I want to share this painting with you. It is rare and has a first right of refusal by Morehead University in Kentucky if ever offered for sale. It is “The Hanging Tree” by Charly Kinney.

Please remember that we have in excess of six hundred original paintings in our inventory. It would take us forever to list them all.

I am trying to make this newsletter more interesting and will appreciate any comments or constructive criticism,
Please

Thank you again for your prayers.
